Enclosed to retire the post of Deputy Registrar, High Court

Final Note by the First Member of Council.

Subject:—

Proposal to revive the post of Deputy Registrar of the High Court of Mysore and to promote Mr.A.N.Kuppuswami Mudaliar, the present Head clerk as Deputy Registrar.

As a measure of economy, the post of Deputy Registrar of the High Court has been kept unfilled ever since the retirement of Mr.N.B.Srinivasiengar from the 21st March 1933. The High Court have now urged for the revival of the post. They point out that under the High Court Regulation the High Court should have both a Registrar and a Deputy Registrar. The duties assigned to the post of Deputy Registrar are onerous and important and the High Court state that it cannot be kept vacant for an indefinite - - length of time without detriment to efficient discharge of work of the Court; at present the duties assigned to the post are devolved partly upon the Registrar and partly upon the Head clerk. The absence of a Deputy Registrar has made it almost impossible for the Registrar to take even a day's casual leave as there is no other gazetted officer to sign and issue court cheques, etc. and address Government on urgent communications. Further, the High Court add that much of the Registrar's time is occupied by office routine and that if he is relieved of the extra work devolving on him he could have more time at his disposal to assist the Judges in the exercise of effective control and check over the work of the subordinate judiciary. In these circumstances, the High Court propose to refill the place of Deputy Registrar and to abolish, as a measure of economy, the post of Head clerk of the High Court which carries the grade Rs.125-10-175.

For the post of Deputy Registrar the name of Mr.A.N.Kuppuswami Mudaliar, Head clerk, is proposed. It is stated that during the past one year and a half he has been doing a portion of the duties of Deputy Registrar in addition to his own and has given complete satisfaction. Mr.Kuppuswami Mudaliar's past record is also said to be very satisfactory and the Judges propose to appoint him to the post of Deputy Registrar under Section 7 of the High Court Regulation.

A Deputy Registrar as well as a Registrar is contemplated under the High Court Regulation and the Deputy Registrar's place cannot be kept indefinitely vacant without affecting the work of the Court. In the circumstances, I am of opinion that the proposal of the High Court is reasonable and may be sanctioned.

Circulation Sent.

The Dewan and the Second Member of Council are also agreeable to the proposal which may be graciously sanctioned.

SIR,

Urgent Rg 10/1/34

I am directed to address the Government on an important subject affecting the constitution of the High Court which has been engaging the attention of the Judges for some time past.

2) Section 7 of the High Court Regulation requires two chief ministerial officers - Registrar and Deputy Registrar. Under G.O. No.2805-6/C.B.120-32-1 dated 17th March 1933 the place of the Deputy Registrar has had to be kept unfilled. But the powers and duties assigned to the post of Deputy Registrar are onerous and important as set out in para 9 of the High Court Office Manual and Rule 27 of the consolidated Rules relating to the practice of the High Court, and he would often be called upon to discharge the duties of Registrar during the latter's absence on leave etc. At present the duties assigned to the post of Deputy Registrar are devolved without any remuneration upon the Registrar and the Head Clerk of the High Court both of whom are overworking themselves under heavy pressure sitting late in the office and attending office on holidays as well. One great disadvantage that is being experienced at present is that the Registrar is precluded under any circumstance from taking even a day's casual leave, as there is no other gazetted officer to sign and issue Court cheques, bills, etc., and address Government on urgent communications. It was with great difficulty that he was permitted to avail himself of the last Xmas holidays and the Head Clerk had to sign important communications to the Government which, the Judges think, is not compatible with the dignity attached to the High Court or the Government. The Judges consider that it would be a great and undeserved hardship to ask them to continue to work in the same strain.

3) In this connection I am to state that at one time when the work was not heavy, there were three officers attached to the High Court viz., (1) Registrar, (2) Deputy Registrar and (3) Manager and Assistant Registrar. Now the work has become incomparably heavy by reason of the Separation Scheme, improved system of correspondence, scrutiny of the work of the subordinate Courts and the new system of vigilance under which the progress of work is watched and suitable action taken to strictly enforce the circulars and instructions issued by the High Court. As it is, much of the Registrar's time is occupied by the office routine. Should he be relieved of the extra work devolved on him, he could have more time at his disposal to assist the Judges in the exercise of the most effective control and check over the work of the subordinate judiciary by continuous examination and scrutiny, besides being able to maintain the high standard of discipline over the High Court office which is essential in the interests of the efficiency of the office. To the High Court of Madras are attached, besides the Registrar, one Master (1500-60-1800), one Deputy Registrar (900-60-1200), three Assistant Registrars (2 on 500-30-650 and 1 on 400-30-550), two Sub Assistant Registrars (340-400) and three Managers (270-300).

4) Further, I am to invite reference to para 6 of the Chief Justice's D.O. dated 16th February 1933 addressed to the Chief Secretary from which it is

is seen that even then the Judges were of opinion that the post of the Deputy Registrar which is a statutory appointment, should not be abolished in view of the increased work in the High Court. It was only as a measure of economy and that too temporarily that the post of the Deputy Registrar was at that time ordered to be kept unfilled. In the light of later experience and for the reasons already given in paras 2 and 3 supra the Judges think that to allow the Deputy Registrar's post to be so kept unfilled indefinitely would seriously affect the efficiency of the Judicial Department and that financial considerations ought not to stand in the way of the filling up of a necessary statutory appointment.

5) The High Court would in these circumstances propose to refill the place of Deputy Registrar and to abolish, as a measure of economy, the post of Head Clerk of the High Court on Rs.125-10-175.

6) As regards the filling up of the post of Deputy Registrar, I am to state that it is now open to be filled up from among the experienced and deserving members of the ministerial section of the Judicial Department (vide. correspondence ending with G.O.No.P.7300-1. Cts. 51-19-6 dated 2-10-1920) and the High Court has considered the relative claims of the several candidates and is of opinion that the claims of Mr. A. N. Kuppuswami Mudaliar, Head Clerk of the High Court, are deserving of special consideration. He has during the past one year and a half been doing a portion of the duties of Deputy Registrar in addition to his own and has given complete satisfaction. He is found to be a capable and experienced ministerial officer and his knowledge of office work and procedure renders his services as Deputy Registrar materially useful in the High Court. He has passed all the tests - required for a Munsiff's post under the old rules and is a competent, efficient and thoroughly reliable official fit in every way to discharge the duties - attached to the post of Deputy Registrar, though he is not a law graduate. When the Head Clerk's post here fell vacant last time, the late Chief Justice singled him out from among the several candidates - and applicants for that responsible post and left a record in the office approbating his services. Mr. R. B. Plumer, ex-Chief Judge, has characterised him as "most zealous, most conscientious and very hard working - thoroughly efficient in all office matters - of very marked intelligence - bearing excellent - character and good habits" and in the opinion of Mr. D. K. Rama Rao, ex-Judge of the High Court, "He has ripe experience in the Judicial Department. He - always impressed me as being very diligent, methodical and painstaking. He possesses capacity above the average and can be trusted to discharge satisfactorily any responsible work given to him. He bears an - excellent character and richly deserves all encouragement."

7) In view of the above facts, the Judges consider that in his case it would be a great and undeserved hardship, if after doing his work very faithfully and satisfactorily for a year and a half in the expectation of bettering his prospects, his claims do not receive suitable recognition.

8) In the above circumstances, the Judges would appoint Mr. A. N. Kuppuswami Mudaliar, Head Clerk, High Court of Mysore, to the post of Deputy Registrar under Section 7 of the High Court Regulation and seek the sanction of the Government thereto.

9) I am to add further that this appointment is also made in consonance with the principle laid down in para 10 of G.O.No.1827-80-E.A.G.308 dated 16th May 1921 in the matter of increasing the number of officers belonging to backward communities to the headquarter offices.

10) I am to request that the Government may be pleased to accord sanction to the abolition of the post of Head Clerk of the High Court of Mysore and to the appointment of Mr. A. N. Kuppuswami Mudaliar, Head Clerk, High Court, as Deputy Registrar.

SIR,

With reference to your letter No.257//C.B.107-33-2 dated 31-1-34/1-2-1934 requesting me to state how the extra cost in the matter of revival of the post of Deputy Registrar, High Court, is proposed to be met during the current official year and also to indicate if possible, a specific source in the current year's budget, I am directed to state that in the current year's Budget Grants, a sum of Rs.9,750/- less a sum of Rs.911/- on account of salary cut has been provided for the salary of the Registrar at Rs.600/- per mensem for 12 months (Rs.7,200/-) and for the post of the Deputy Registrar at Rs.200/- per mensem for 11 months and at Rs.350/- for one month - (Rs.2,550/-). As the amount provided for the Deputy Registrar's post viz., Rs.2,550/- has so far neither been expended nor otherwise appropriated to any other head under Courts of Law, the whole of that amount is available for the revival of that post.
